Trinity Sunday

18th May 2008

WELCOME TO ST GEORGE'S

Come, you who have much faith and you who have little, and you who have not been for a long time, you who have been here often, you who have tried to follow and you who feel you have failed.

Come, not because I invite you, but because God does; and, as you are welcomed, go, and welcome others.

We welcome you to our worship this morning.

We hope God's Holy Spirit will touch your heart and that you may be strengthened by Word and Sacrament.

Trinity Sunday

Trinity Sunday reminds us that God's creation, forgiveness and guidance, utterance, appearance and expression are inextricably and eternally one. The story of God and His creation is a continuing one.

Jesus show us God, the Holy Spirit dwelling within us enables us to be at peace with ourselves and all created things. That's why it is so important that we live our faith and care for the world around us; why we must fight injustice, corruption and prejudice. That is why we must embrace the Peace of God, which may be experienced but not understood.

Service ROTA June—September

Soon, those who take part in the services will receive their copy of the new rota and an updated contacts list. Please remember that if you are unable to participate on a day allocated to you that you use the contacts list to find someone to take your place.

It may be worth pointing out that the number of volunteers on the coffee rota is falling. Can I ask if anyone thinks they might like to help out with the refreshments after the services, could they please speak with Angela Lascelles.

Thank you to everyone who participated during the last few months.

Christian Aid

Mother Theresa once said, "it is a poverty that a child should die so that we might live as we choose". I think these are very important words and one that every Christian should take to heart. It is impossible to estimate how many people die each year from starvation poverty and sickness that could be prevented, and the important thing to remember is that for one year's expenditure on the war in Iraq we could practically eliminate starvation in Africa. What has happened to our priorities.

This week a small but dedicated group have worked hard to raise money for Christian Aid; we have had two amazing events. The concert last Saturday, was well attended, fantastic music, great enthusiasm and an event worthy of any venue in London.

On Monday evening our quiz night, oversubscribed and having to turn people away, a great community event. Lots of local involvement, especially with people from the community. Special thanks to Chard & Associates, Steve Eggett, Graham Boal and Lizzie Posnett for the fabulous prizes, to Angela Lascelles for her introductory talk on C.A. and to Mrs Leslie and the teachers of Hawkesdown House for their sterling work serving food and drinks, to John Arumaguya for great food and to Lizzie Posnett for cleaning up afterwards.

Thank you to everyone who made both events such fun and made such a contribution. The finances are not available yet but I'll let you know how much we raised as soon as possible. My grateful thanks to Steve Eggett for his amazing work in organising the week, and for never complaining or whingeing but just getting on with the job!

And so where do we go from here - what now?? We still need an enormous sum to reach our target.

Please can you help? Your gift could mean the difference between life and death. It could mean a better life for whole communities, please help. The final events are today with the sponsored walk around the City, and next week for the cake sale. Please ask me if you want to be part of either of these.

The Sacrament of Confirmation

Confirmation is one of the significant milestones along the Christian journey. To 'confirm' means to make firm, to fulfil, strengthen, or reassert strongly. At our confirmation we confirm the promises that were made at our baptism. For most of us, these promises were made for us, early in our lives. Confirmation now means owning them for ourselves, publicly declaring that We are a follower of Jesus Christ and that we want our faith in Jesus to shape our values and priorities.

This year we have 5 candidates for Confirmation on the 22nd May (Corpus Christi) at St Mary Abbots church at 7.00pm. It would be very good if as many as possible were able to support our candidates, please? The Feast of Corpus Christi will be transferred to the Sunday next. Please remember in you prayers those from St George's who are to be confirmed:

Andrew Peter Janssens, Alexander Bennett, Elisabeth Bennett, Julia Kennish and Rebecca Lyster.
